Cluster News

During the month of July, we will prepare the parish annual reports that detail the census and sacramental data as well as the financial information from fiscal year 2009-2010. This information will be reported to the parishes after it is finalized and submitted to the bishop. The annual report is a reminder to everyone that the Church must deal in the business of money in addition to the spiritual. With employees, utility bills, supply costs, repair costs, program expenses, etc., the church's mission suffers without financial support and so we continually remind ourselves how important it is to give generously to our parish. The beginning of the new fiscal year is a great time to evaluate our commitment to a regular pattern of giving. As we consider where we will spend our summer vacations, let's not forget our commitment to our community of faith. Recognizing that this is a very difficult time for so many people, we give thanks for those who continue to give despite the unfortunate reality of our economy. We rely on each other and from that dependence comes great confidence, trust and strength.

Questions or comments about the Cluster may be addressed to the Cluster Parishes Coordinator, Jeff Foster, by email at jeffrey.foster@cox.net or by calling 485-2142.

A note from the Vicar for Vocations' Desk

Dear Parish Family,

I wanted to take a moment and thank all for the wonderful farewell Mass and reception. It was amazing! A special thank you goes out to all those who brought such good food, our combined choir, liturgical ministers, and those who organized the reception. In particular, my family had a great time and enjoyed speaking with so many of you.

Please know of my daily prayers. It has been an honor to be your pastor. I will miss your smiling faces! May the Lord bless you with abundant Graces.

Peace,
 Father Mike
