Cluster News

One of the great advantages of being part of a cluster of parishes, is the opportunity to celebrate Mass in a neighboring church and feel right at home in the community. Those who have visited the other parishes in our Cluster are surprised to see how many people they know. We continue to encourage our parishioners to visit all the parishes of our Cluster, even if only to take advantage of a more convenient Mass time once in awhile. An added benefit is that you are able to place your offertory envelope in the collection at any of the four parishes (Holy Angels, Resurrection, St. Mary's or St. Paul's) and your envelope will be returned to your home parish to be counted, recorded and deposited. Mass times for the Cluster Parishes are published in the bulletin.

Questions or comments about the Cluster may be addressed to the Cluster Parishes Coordinator, Jeff Foster, by email at jeffrey.foster@cox.net or by calling 485-2142.

Migrant Ministry - Thank You

On July 1st, we arrived at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Onley, VA. We were met by Jim Albright, the Head of the Migrant Ministry for the Diocese, the charming Father Kelly, former pastor of St Peter's who was visiting and Kathy Bredimus, an outstanding volunteer who sends us information and pictures of how the Migrant Ministry is going. They were overwhelmed with how our parishes are committed to this ministry. We delivered a truck and trailer load full of the donations we collected and over $1400 in Food Lion Cards. After we unloaded, Father Kelly kept us spell bound with stories of working in the Migrant Ministry and his years of service on the Eastern Shore along with his current two parishes he presides over in the mountains of Virginia. Father Kelly offered a blessing for the work the St. Paul's, Holy Angels, St. Mary's and Resurrection parishioners do for these migrant workers on the shore.

The migrant ministry would like to thank the following people for their work with this ministry; Tracy Dussia of Resurrection; Martha Thompson of St Paul's; Evelyn Screeney and Ada Howard of Holy Angels; and Jack Lofton and The St Anne's Society of St. Mary's. A special Thank you to Jack and Lydia Lofton for assisting with the sorting and delivery of our donations.

Lastly and most sincerely, thank you to the parishioners of our four cluster churches for their wonderful generosity to our Brothers and Sisters in faith. Sincerely, Michael and Marie Reynolds (St Mary's)
For additional information regarding donations, volunteer work or attending 8 PM mass on Tuesday or Thursday evenings at the work camps, please contact Jim Albright, P O Box 584, Accomac, VA 23301 or (757) 787-7862. "

Freedom Writers Needed

The number of volunteers in the Freedom Writers Ministry is dwindling. Each month, the Freedom Writers® Network focuses on one case of a victim of human rights abuse. Personal letters from caring people can bring about a prisoner's release, secure vital information, launch an investigation, or even save a life. Please consider joining this ministry and spend a few minutes (and approximately $1.44) each month to mail one letter to a recipient overseas with a copy to an embassy in Washington, DC. Every effort is made by the coordinator to make the process effortless for the writers by providing each month's letter in paper or electronic format, including envelopes.
